Dear Jill,

I want to thank you for taking the time to travel to the Hershey Hotel to present at Hildebrandt Learning Center's, LLC, Christmas Center Directors' meeting and also for the very pertinent information you shared with our management group. The session presented was exactly what I wanted portrayed to our attendees. My only regret is that we would have been able to give you more time on the day's agenda to cover your subjects. I am sure we could have spent the entire day on the topics presented.

I would like to share some of the comments from our Center Directors about the day. Many stated that the information you presented gave them a new way of looking at how people view them in their role. Just the hand shaking exercise was eye opening for many directors. Also, many commented on the information on dress styles and the impression it makes on parents and other they may come in contact with in their positions. Our senior management team especially is appreciative of this segment you presented.

Thank you for the excellent presentation and we hope you can join us at future meetings to discuss the myriad of subjects that would assist our management group to become even better in their careers with Hildebrandt.

Sincerely,

William J. Grant
